The Administration Dodging the Question.

Mr. Buchanan's Administration is between two hot fires. On the one side is the manifest justice of allowing the real inhabitants of Kansas to vote, not only in choosing delegates to the Convention to form a Constitution, but upon the Constitution, when formed—and on the other side is the pressure from the advocates of Slavery, and upholders of the Border-Ruffian Legislature, who, knowing that the Free State men are largely in the majority, refuse to see the justice of their claims to suffrage.

The Registry Law, at the late election, prohibited the Free State men from voting, but Gov. Walker is pledged as strongly as words can do it to use his influence to have the Constitution submitted to a vote of the whole people, and promises to this effect have come from a higher source. Mr. Buchanan said, in his Inaugural Address, last 4th of March:

> "It is the imperative and indispensable duty of the Government of the United States to secure to every resident inhabitant the free and independent expression of his opinion by his vote.—This sacred right of each individual must be preserved. This being accomplished, nothing can be fairer than to leave the People of a Territory free from all foreign interference to decide their own destiny for themselves, subject only to the Constitution of the United States."

We notice that the northern democratic papers are now attempting to deceive the people into the idea that all is now right in Kansas—that their Governor Walker is doing justly and fairly, and is sustained by the Administration; and the fact that some of the Southern Democratic papers are scolding at Gov. Walker, is cited very emphatically by them.

The Washington Union, Mr. Buchanan's organ, may safely be looked to as expressing his views, and the following extract from a late article seems conclusive enough of the dodge to which it is intended to resort:

> "Gov. Walker, is advocating a submission of the Constitution to a vote of the people, acted with wisdom and justice, and followed the only line of policy which promises to settle this vexed question either rightly or satisfactorily.—In this respect, at least, he has done nothing worthy of death or bonds.
> "But who are the people? What shall be the qualifications of a voter on the Constitution when it comes to be submitted? We answer that this is for the Convention to settle. Those who think that the Convention might declare the Constitution in full force by virtue of their own will, can hardly deny that they might append to it a condition requiring it to be first approved by the people. If they can do this, they can also say what classes of persons shall be counted as being part of the people.

According to this, then, the programme of the Administration is to have the Convention, just chosen by the pro-slavery faction, determine who are the people, and who shall vote on the adoption of the Constitution. The plotters will bear close watching.

A MONSTER SUIT CLOSED UP.—The N. Y. Court of Appeals has just decided the great suit testing the validity of certain trust deeds given by the North American Trust and Banking Company, previous to its failure, to Richard M. Blatchford and others, Trustees, to secure a large indebtedness principally due to Palmers, McKillop, Dent & Company, of London, and the Bank of the United States and Girard Bank, in Philadelphia.

David Leavitt, the Receiver, instituted suit in the Supreme Court to have these declared invalid, but that Court decided against him, whereupon the case went up to the Court of Appeals, which has at length affirmed the decision of the Court below, and the amount of money, reaching to nearly $2,250,000, must now be distributed to the claimants. One half of this goes to J. Horsely Palmer, and the other half to widows, orphans, retired officers, and a large number of others who in years gone by had invested their little all in a place of safety. The decision will be received with great pleasure in England, and will do much to strengthen American credit.

The case has been in the Courts for 17 years, its briefs amount in bulk to a respectable little library. The counsel employed at various times have been the following: Chancellor Kent, Peter A. Jay, David B. Ogden, George Wood, Edward Sanford, John Cleveland, George N. Titus, E. H. Blatchford, Charles C. King, Samuel Beardsley, W. Curtis Noyes, Green C. Bronson, Nicholas Hill, Benjamin F. Butler, Charles O'Connor, William Kent and Daniel Lord. The three gentlemen first named and Mr. Noyes were the first counsel consulted by the Trustees. Six of the above named gentlemen are deceased.

Such men do not work for small fees, and accordingly it is said that the costs reach nearly or quite $130,000, and it is doubted whether there will be found enough left to pay them.

THE CHINESE SUGAR CANE.—Mr. Kroh of Wabash County, Ill., who some months ago made a statement of the result of his experiment with sugar-cane last year, offers to bet the skeptical editor of The Charleston Courier $500 that he will manufacture from one acre, "planted with the Chinese weed," 500 gallons of molasses, a superior article to any manufactured in the South, and sold by the merchants in Coles County, in 1857, for 75 cents per gallon; and further, that he will manufacture it at the cost of 10 cents per gallon.

THEODORE PARKER AND THE NEW CENT.—Theodore Parker in a sermon on the "Progress of Despotism" the other day, said, among other things, "that the Government had become so degenerate, that the rulers had stricken the figure of liberty from the coins of the country, and had put in its place on the new cent an ugly looking vulture."

DOCTORATED.—At the late commencement of Beloit College, the degree of L. L. D. was conferred upon Hon. E. V. WHITON, the able chief Justice of the Supreme Court. It is a well deserved compliment to a most excellent Judge, and good man.

POPULATION OF LOUISVILLE, KY.—A recent census of Louisville gives the following figures:

Population of Louisville in 1857,	57,587
" " 1850	43,194
Increase in seven years,	14,391
Number of voters	7,405
Children between six eighteen years	12,041
Increase of whites since 1850	14,877
" free negroes	47
Decrease of slaves	567

Michigan Central Railroad.

This popular thoroughfare makes a good showing of earnings for the year. From the Report lately published in the Detroit Tribune, we take the following figures and facts:

	Year ending May 31 1856.	1857.
Earnings from Passengers	$1,497,354 51	$1,616,415 77
Earnings from Freight	1,010,644 74	1,418,491 87
Earnings from Miscellaneous	92,603 46	80,694 45
Gross Earnings	$2,600,442 51	$3,114,601 09
Cost of operating the Road, including Taxes	1,571,817 99	1,872,913 55
Net Earnings	$1,228,624 52	$1,291,707 54

The construction account has been increased this year by the erection of transfer, freight and engine houses, at Chicago, Detroit, and other places, the construction of new cars, engines, bridges, &c. The report says:

> The business of the first half of this year, has been very prosperous, that of the latter half, aside from the late opening of navigation, has been reduced by the general causes of depression which have affected all the great East and West lines in the country.
> The unusually small quantity of produce moved eastward the last winter and spring, and the light purchases by western merchants at the sea board this season, are causes of a partial stagnation in the carrying trade, which, though serious while occurring, are temporary in their character, and will pass away with the coming crop; and as all our traffic, through and way, passenger and freight, has been alike affected, we may expect, with the autumn trade, a large and prosperous business.

NEW VILLAGE IN OZAUKEE CO.—The Ozaukee Advertiser states that Mr. GEO. W. FOSTER has recently put a large sawmill in operation on the Milwaukee river, in the town of Fredonia, and the consequence is that a fine village is growing up, which is called Waubeka. The Advertiser says:

> Two well filled stores, one kept by Mr. TURNER and one by Mr. LAWES, are liberally patronized. Two respectable taverns are doing fine business—one blacksmith shop keeps tune with the shoemaker's hammer, and that of the industrious carpenter. About fifteen new dwellings are in the process of erection, and the steady influx of new comers will make them all available and profitable investments. Mr. Foster may with propriety be called the author and proprietor of this enterprise, and his large tract of land and unused water power insures him a large fortune.—Long may he live to enjoy them.

☞ At a recent meeting of the French Academy of Moral and Political Sciences, the following subject for the prize of 1858 was proposed and adopted: "To describe, in a moral and philosophical point of view, the various influences of punishments on the ideas, sentiments and habits of those on whom they are inflicted."

Vigilance Committee at Work at La Crosse.

The La Crosse Republican brings the following intelligence of the doings of a Vigilance Committee in that city:

> The people of our city to the number of between three and four hundred, assembled at Court House Square, by a general understanding, on Monday night last about 10 o'clock, and after a thorough and perfect organization being effected, proceeded to the lower part of the city to a house of ill fame, and after giving the inmates time to leave, set fire to the structure and burned it to the ground. They then went to the north part of the city, and after demolishing the furniture, smashing the windows and doors, set fire to the house known as the "St. Charles," and which had been used as a place of prostitution and a resort for blacklegs and villains.—After completing the work of destruction here they proceeded to the small house on State street near the residence of Mr. Flint, and from there to another house on Second street below the Napoleon Hotel, which were occupied for the same purpose, but after promises from the inmates to leave, and by the solicitations of the Mayor, the houses were saved, with the understanding that the premises should be vacated by morning.
> We regret that some other means were not adopted whereby the community could have rid themselves of these dens, without a destruction of property, as such severe measures may be followed by terrible results in the future.
> The property destroyed was probably worth some $2,000, but it was considered by those engaged in its destruction as the only effectual way of ridding the city of the characters which infested them.
> It is but justice to say that the proceedings were conducted by respectable people, (so we are informed) tho' severe measures were adopted, but they seem determined that these nuisances shall be abated.
> P. S. Since the above was in type, the citizens of La Crosse, assembled at Barron's Hall, to the number of two or three hundred of the best portion of the community, and resolved to organize a "Vigilance Committee" of 150, to protect the property and families of the citizens.—We have no time nor room to make even a sketch of the proceedings. Wm. Hood was chairman, and a committee of seven was appointed by the chair, who were empowered to appoint a "Vigilance Committee."

THE FOURTH IN MILWAUKEE.—The editor of the Manitowoc Tribune, who spent the 4th in this city, says of the doings of the day:

> The turn out on the Fourth was the largest display we have ever witnessed in a Western city. The Military, the Fire department, the civic associations, and the boat clubs, appeared to vie with each other in the magnificence of their appearance.
> The Milwaukee Light Guard, under command of Gen. King, had an encampment near the city, with the Chicago Light Guard and the National Cadets for guests. The fine soldierly appearance and excellent drill of these different companies was creditable to the cities from which from which they hail, and their encampment was a point of attraction to citizens and strangers.
> The other companies turned out with well filled ranks, and all of them looked well.
> We saw more of the Fire Department than any other part of the display, and received from two of the companies the attention which they pay to the most honored guests.
> We have seldom seen a more creditable display of this useful body of our citizens than on the occasion alluded to; and we regret that we have not time to spare to notice the beautiful arrangements and tasty equipments of each Company.

Rail Road Meeting at McGregor.

McGREGOR, July 9, 1857.

Pursuant to notice the Stockholders of the McG. St. P. & M. R. R. R. Co., convened at the company's office for the purpose of making such amendments in the articles of association as might be deemed necessary.

On motion, the articles of incorporation were amended, allowing an increase of six additional Directors.

The stockholders then proceeded to ballot for the proposed Directors. The votes being duly canvassed, the following named gentlemen were declared elected for the ensuing year:

W. McCLINTOCK, of Fayette county.
L. BIGLOW,	Clayton "
A. C. CALL,	Kossuth "
J. F. MACK,	Wisconsin.
J. C. WRIGHT,	New York.

THE MILWAUKEE CONVENTION.—We hope none of our readers have failed to read the resolutions passed at the late Republican Mass Convention, and published in the Transcript of last week.—They seem to us a very solid and comprehensive platform. We are glad to see Wisconsin take the stand she has done, and we have faith to believe she will never retrograde from so noble a position.—Prescott Transcript.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.—A German named Ernest Schramm, committed suicide in this city, on Tuesday morning last. He seems first to have attempted to bleed himself to death by cutting gashes across his legs and arms with a razor, but ended by cutting his throat. The act was done in the field near his residence on the Calumet Road. He was about fifty years of age and had long been very intemperate. We have not learned the verdict of the Coroner's inquest, but it should have been, "Murdered by bad whiskey."—Sheboygan Times.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man, (Norwegian) received a blow on the head from a stone thrown by another, on Friday evening last fracturing his skull and injuring him so severely that he has since died from the effects of it.

The boy who threw the stone was arrested by officer SMITH and is now in jail, awaiting the action of the Grand Jury.—Manitowoc Tribune.

☞ SUN STROKE.—On Tuesday afternoon, a German resident of this city, named JOHN GROSS, was overcome by the heat and expired in a very short time. He was engaged with the engineers on the S. & M. R. R. near Sheboygan Falls.—Sheboygan Times.

THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER.—The following eloquent and beautiful peroration was delivered by Mr. MEAGHER at the conclusion of his lecture on Saturday night at Young's Hall. Comment upon it is unnecessary; it will be read with pleasure and pride by every resident of the "Fair white city." His lecture on Saturday night was the most eloquent discourse we have ever heard him deliver, and was listened to by a large and intelligent audience, who were delighted with his brilliant wit, and enraptured by his patriotic eloquence. The concluding remarks of his lecture, which we append, may be considered a fair sample of his elegant style:

> LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
> The task of this evening is at an end. Invited to it by many of the best citizens of Milwaukee, it was an honor to accept, as it was a sincere pleasure to discharge it. That pleasure would have been unalloyed, had it been in my power to render anything like justice to the subject of my lecture. Occupied, however, as I have been for the last four weeks, it was out of the question for me to do more than present in a light and evanescent form some few of the ideas, the memories and reflections suggested by my experience of the old world and my enjoyment of the new. Yet it has sometimes happened that a flag of the frailest texture has stirred the hearts of thousands and been the incentive to great deeds. Emblazoned with a word or two of generous import and heroic significance, it has conduced more to the renown of nations than libraries such as that of Alexandria, or all the scholarship and philosophy of institutes fashioned after the Athenian Academy. Thus it may be that the pictures I have hastily and inaccurately drawn—perishable as they are—may serve to deepen the popular love which surrounds the institutions of America—may serve yet further to depreciate the pretentions of those egotists, who in Europe, claim by Divine Right the people as their property. If so, it is well.
> It is well that these pretensions should be quoted at a discount in this country; for while it is so, the purer aspirations of Europe—the aspirations of the Democracy from the Tiber to the Thames—will have a healthy breeze to waft them higher, and a brighter sun to kindle them, streaming from the mountains of the West. Nor is the advantage arising from such a state of the public mind restricted to the people among whom it exists. It reacts upon the source from which it is replenished. It strengthens the prestige of America throughout the world. It substitutes, in the foreign lands with which America has dealings and relations, popular sympathies for the artificial courtesies of cabinets and kingcraft. When these sympathies shall have assumed an official form, the political mission of the United States will be fulfilled, and their glory shall have reached the zenith. Circled by Republics—each made to her own great likeness—the commonwealth of which we are the children, will be impregnable—impregnable and supreme.
> With a fervent prayer for this consummation of the hopes, the struggles, the martyrdoms, the long vigils, the agonies, and the sacrifices of the European nations, I should take my leave of those who hear me, did I not owe a word of thankfulness and friendship to those who gathered here this evening to do me honor. A word like this—simple though sincere—is the least I can give in return for the good wishes, the friendly services, the hospitality and social cheer, with which I have been made happy and enriched during my visit to your city—would that I could give more. Would that it were in my power to hand to hand the youths of Germany, here present, their gorgeous tri-color, wreathed with the green leaves of victory, and say to them—the lyric land of the Rhine is free—feudalism is no more—Principalities and Grand Duchies have disappeared—instead of Konigsberg and Ehrenbreitstein, you have the public school and the Capitol where the delegates of the people sit—the sceptres of Berlin and Vienna have vanished in the flames, from which Liberty, Equality, Fraternity—the favored Triumvirate of God—have gone forth triumphant.
> Would that I could take the old man by the hand, who, in these, his last days, even on the shore of the Eternal Sea, still dreams of Ireland—the land of his early song—the land of his fathers, his faith, his sorrow and his love. Would that I could take this grey-haired emigrant by the hand and say to him—rejoice—let thy weary heart have rest and the sweetness of prayers fulfilled—look up and let the eyes that have wept, even unto darkness, be fulfilled with the light of an Easter morn—for the days long prophesied have dawned above the peaks of Mourne, and the beauty and the richness of earth have been vouchsafed in freedom to Innisfail, from henceforth and forever.
> Yet it is denied me to utter these greetings; and from the old world we must turn for consolation, and for pride and trust in our humanity, to this the free, the joyous, the prosperous. Here, at all events, the happiness is granted me of being able to congratulate the emigrants from Europe, and with them the sons and daughters of the soil. Nor I know not that elsewhere within the United States could livelier congratulations escape me than on that spot—within this fair white city—on whose tablets such wonders of industry and adventures are set forth, and such abundant promises, even to the most careless eye are, legible. Of the visit which has now drawn to a close, believe me, I shall long retain in vivid outline the pleasant impression. Of the thriving, the united, the genial intelligent citizens I have met, I shall, for many a day to come, preserve the fondest recollection; evoked by that recollection, many a hearty aspiration from these lips shall ascend for the good fortune and renown of the city—the fair white city—to which I now bid farewell, and which stands, in the evening light, as a citadel of ivory, above the waters—the Mediterranean waters—which reflect its beauty and diburse its wealth.

THE BULLS AND BEARS.—The Bears of the Stock Exchange seem to have things very much in their own way. It is vain that the Bulls, with arched neck and bended horns attempt to toss the stock upwards. There is more power in the growls of the Bears than in all the muscles of their bovine antagonists!

In every contest, in regard to the credit of a public security, the advantage of numbers is on the side of the Bulls. Of course, the body of purchasers is just as large as the body of sellers, whether in cash or time sales, and the additional force of the holders of stock, for investment, whose interest is in keeping it at the highest point, most always rank with the Bulls.

Why is it, then, that the Bears have always the best of it? Why do Messrs. A. and B. bring down a stock by a persistence in offers to sell it low next week, and still lower the next, and lower the third?

There are two reasons. One the old and universal law, that one man can so muddy a stream that a hundred cannot purify it—that a thousand virtuous attestations shall not set it right.

Another reason lies in the practice that prevails, of requiring of the buyer on time a deposit of a margin (5 or 10 per cent) to cover the hazards of the transaction; and yet requiring no such security of the seller. The latter operator can, at will, refuse to deliver the stocks, according to his contract; and as the morality of the Stock Exchange does not rigidly discountenance this repudiation, it is frequently restored to.—The Bears, therefore, have a double advantage, and a clearly dishonest one, over their adversaries.

It has been proposed to put a wholesome restraint upon these gambling transactions; first; by giving them a legal sanction, which would put a stop to such "suspensions" as we have noticed; and next by taxing them. The Stock Exchange is an auction where goods are bought and sold. The transactions of a single day amount to millions. On Saturday last, for instance, the aggregate sales was over $5,000,000. What a revenue a tax of ½ per cent would yield in such an auction business? And in order to press these sales, how efficacious would be a mill tax for every day (beyond three,) over which a transaction should be run? In the close approaching day when we shall have to look for the means of extraordinary taxation, these children of Mammon who live by appraising (or rather depreciating) the property of others, will not be forgotten.

We throw out the suggestion; however, without assuming the championship of it. It is well, however, to let the gentlemen operators of Wall street understand that they and their works are attracting serious attention.—Albany Argus.

SHOCKING MURDER.—We were informed on Monday, by J. B. Perry, Esq., of Albany, before whom an investigation was made—that about sunset on the 4th inst., Mr. Nehemiah Root, an old man of 75 years, residing in the town of Mt. Pleasant, shot Eben C. Foster, a son-in-law, killing him instantly. The circumstances are briefly these.

There had been a personal difficulty between the parties for a long time, and about sunset of the day mentioned, Root approached within a short distance of Foster and leveled his gun at him, which he perceiving, turned to flee, and immediately received the contents of one barrel loaded with a slug or slugs in his left shoulder, breaking that, also the collar bone, and burying itself in the lung. He took two or three steps and fell upon his face in the sand, a corpse. His wife hearing a gun, and cries of a child hurried to him turned him to one side—saw one gasp—and all was finished. The murderer went into the house, barricaded the doors and windows, and declared he would shoot the first man who attempted to enter. One Gideon Gillet, by a rush having succeeded in entering, grappled and secured him, after a violent resistance. He was tried before Esq., Perry, of Albany, and in default of bail committed to the county jail.—Monroe Sentinel.

THE QUEEN'S FAMILY.—Punch, we believe, is responsible for the following bit of rhyme. The Queen and Prince Albert are supposed to be conversing together:

If our next should be an heir
We'll call him Edward Albert, dear;
"Not so fast," the Queen replies,
Those two names so much I prize,
They shall ne'er be worn by one,
Though he be our eldest son;
I'd have you, Albert, understand,
The nomenclature I've planned
If our next should be an heir,
The name of Edward he shall bear,
In memory of my father Kent;
Our second son, 'tis my intent
Shall take, of course, your own dear name;
Our third, I think, may justly claim
That of my uncle Sussex; then
Our fourth I'll name Leiningen,
My own half brother, young and bold;
Our fifth we'll christen Leopold;
Our sixth shall Gotha—"Gracious Queen—"
(Exclaimed the Prince with awe-struck mien)
"But if some girls should intervene?"
"Well!" answered she," suppose they do,
They go for nothing in my view;
But, to proceed, the sixth and seventh,
The eighth, and ninth, and tenth and 'leventh,
I'll thus baptize—the Queen turn'd round,
The Prince was stretched out on the ground,
And look'd most ghostly wan.
"What is the matter, my deer'd."
"O! please your M-jesty, I'm floor'd,
I am no Solomon."

Major General John E. Wool—A Reminiscence of the Battle of Plattsburgh.

GEN. RUNNELS, of St. Louis, writing to the Washington Union, under date of June 23d, communicates the following interesting reminiscence of the battle of Plattsburgh, in which Gen. Wool makes a conspicuous figure:

> I notice with great pleasure the presentation of a sword of the richest quality to General Wool for his efficient service on the bloodiest battle-field of American arms—Buena Vista.
> General Wool deserved this meed of distinction from his country at an earlier day—when a Major, in command of the 29th regiment of infantry at the battle of Plattsburgh, September, 1814.
> He was one of the best disciplinarians in the army, and on all occasions prompt to duty himself, and requiring all under his command to come up to his own standard. On this account some considered him harsh and severe, but this discipline was the glory of the regiment.
> On the morning of the 6th of September, 1814, when Gen. Provost was marching upon Plattsburgh with an army of 14,500 men, mostly the invincible troops of Lord Wellington, Major Wool, with 300 men of his regiment, at 2 o'clock in the morning, marched out the Beekmantown road, eight miles distant. At sunrise orders were given to file off to an adjacent field for refreshments; at the same time Major Wool rode on in advance to reconnoitre the advancing enemy. Very soon he returned rapidly, waving his sword for us to form and take position in the road. We immediately fell into column, and half way to the road we received the first fire of the enemy. Pursuant to orders, we formed in the road, and adopted the mode of street firing, the first company firing and falling in the rear to load, and in turn to fire again. In this way, gradually falling back in good order as the enemy pressed upon us, we disputed every foot of ground. Major Wool's horse was soon shot, and given to his sergeant major, Botsford, who was badly wounded, to ride into town, where Botsford died of his wound.
> When we had gradually fallen back to within two miles of Plattsburgh, Capt. Le ard came up to our support with two pieces of light artillery, as also did a battalion of riflemen; these latter took position near the road by a stone fence. Here we made a stand; formed in solid column until our foes came within pistol-shot. We then fired, and opened to the right and left, when the artillery fired with awful effect; at the same time the riflemen sent in their deadly messengers. Here the enemy was thrown into momentary confusion, but instantly recovered, pressed on, and came within an ace of taking Captain Leonard's guns.
> Col. Wellington led upon us a battalion of cavalry with great fury. Fifty men of our company levelled their muskets at his head, and he fell to the ground mortally wounded, when his command fell back.
> After this bloody conflict, where our foes suffered dreadfully, we soon fell back in good order to the south side of the Saranac, taking off the plank of the bridge in the face of the enemy, and there making a final stand, compelling the assailants to take shelter behind the houses. The bravery displayed by Major Wool and his men, and the admirable regularity in their movements, taught the British army a lesson which helped much to ourglorious victory, after an unequal contest for five days and nighs.
> The severest forlorn hope that ever tested the courage of a soldier was performed by twenty men of the 29th and ten men of another regiment in going unarmed with hay and tar, and firing the dry pine underbush in the very face of the British batteries.
> One of our sloops-of-war used by McDonough on the lake at this battle nineteen days previously, the trees of which it was built were waving green in the forest.
> It is harder for a commanding officer to be cool and firm in battle than it is for his men. After the first onset the men become excited and eager to revenge their falling comrades, and think but little of their own danger. The greatest trial of a soldier is in marching up to the foe before actually engaging. He feels like he had an egg in his throat, and is not relieved until the effect of powder and lead is seen.
> "The bloody 29th," as it was called, is now about extinct—nearly all the men and officers having gone down to the grave. Major, now Major General Wool, and this writer, so far as is known, are the only survivors of this gallant regiment of infantry.

Rotunda too Weak.

(Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.)

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 9.

Ministers Morse and Bowlin are here. Gen. Cass requests them to remain until after the next mail from Panama. If President Herran's instructions shall not then authorize an adjustment, forcible means to obtain reparation may be expected. We have six vessels, two hundred guns and fifteen hundred men at Aspinwall and Panama.

The architects have just discovered the Rotunda walls to be too weak to bear the new iron dome. Its construction will therefore be suspended, and the immense expenditure already incurred will be lost. Strengthening the walls sufficiently involves nearly the removal and renewal of the old Capitol building.

THE MAKE-UP OF NEW YORK.—The directory of New York city, just issued, shows a population of 1722 Smiths, 186 of them named John, 878 Browns, 666 Johnsons, 593 Joneses, 328 Davises, 246 Robinsons, &c. The Macs and Mcs number 5740, the Murphys 574, and the O'Briens 328. There are sixty banks, one hundred and ninety-seven insurance companies, two hundred and sixty-nine newspapers and periodicals, thirty benevolent societies, twenty-seven asylums, fourteen hospitals, and fifteen public libraries in the city. The churches number 284, including ten synagogues; the Presbyterian denomination leads with fifty-two houses of worship; the Episcopalians have fifty-one; Methodists of all kinds forty-two; Baptists twenty-nine; Catholics twenty-five; Reformed Dutch twenty-one; Congregational and Lutheran seven each; Universalists four; Unitarians two; Friends three. Sixty seven railroad companies centre or have their offices in the city; there are also seventy six transportation lines; one hundred and ninety expresses, American, foreign and city; twelve telegraph lines, and twenty-three omnibus lines.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—The weather for the last few days has been excessively hot, and we have been obliged to resort to divers and sundry cool places to avoid melting into our boots.—Only think of it, 96 deg. of Fahrenheit in the shade, and we obliged to retreat to the cellar.—We observe its beneficial effects upon the growing crops, particularly corn, which has grown one-third within the last week. Wheat, barley and oats (except the very late sown) are looking remarkably well, but we shall need rain soon, especially if the hot weather continues.—Ripon Home.

UNSOPHISTICATED ELOQUENCE.—A countrys woman was carrying on a very simple process against a neighbor in one of the small courts of Germany. The attorney of the opponent pestered her with so much of chicanery and legal subtleties, that she lost all patience, and interrupted him thus:

"My Lord, the case is simply this; I bespoke of my opponent, the carpet-maker, a carpet, with figures which were to be as handsome as my Lord, the Judge; and he wants now to force me to take one with horrible caricatures, uglier even than his attorny. Was I not right in breaking off the bargain?"

The court laughed at the comparison, the attorney was stupified, and the woman won the case.

LOVE AKIN IN CASTLE AND IN COTTAGE.—The game of love is the same, whether the lovers be clad in velvet or in hodden grey. Beneath the gilded ceiling of a palace, or the lowly rafters of a cabin, there are the same hopes and fears, the same jealousies, and distrusts, and despondings; the wiles and stratagems are all alike; for, after all, the stake is human happiness, whether he who risks it be a peer or a peasant.

EARNESTNESS.—The grand secret of all worldly success, which some men call will, I would rather call earnestness. If I were asked, from my experience of life, to say what attribute most impressed the minds of others; or most commended fortune, I should say, "earnestness." The earnest man wins for himself, and earnestness and truth go together.—Bulwer.

MRS. DICKSON'S NEW PETTICOAT.—A meek, quiet-looking person, calling himself John Dickson, was detected on Friday in the very act of stealing a large roll of red flannel from the door of a dry goods store in Eighth street. He did not deny the fact, but attempted to palliate his offence by the following address to the Mayor:

"Sir, I confess I did not take flannin; but when you hear why I took it, you will say that I am an unfortunate man, and ought to be pitied. My wife says to me yesterday morning:

'John, I've got a two dollar note, Bank of Harrisburg (says she): I made it by washing and ironing, and I want you to buy me eight yards of flannin—red flannin (says she)—to make me two petticoats, for the Spring is backwards (says she), and the weather keeps cool, and I havn't a rag that's fit to wear. And mind you don't lose the money nor go near any grogshop (says she), for your weakness; and don,t you get into conversation with any other loafers as you're going along on this errand.'

"So I took the money—the two dollar note (I did)—and set out, and went three squares around to keep clear of a grogery that's in the upper end of our street; and that's the way I missed it; for in t'other street I met Joe Hinson. Says Joe:

"Jack where you're bound?"

"Says I—'to get eight yards of quarter dollar flannin' to make my wife two petticoats.'

"Says he—, Dock the old woman half a yard, and let's have a couple of glasses of toddy. It's only making the petticoats a little shorter (says he,) and she's got a handsome pair of ancles, she won't mind having a scant pattern.

"Well I thought half a yard of flannin wouldn't make much difference, so in we went to the hotel, changed the note, drank a glass apiece, and that put us in the notion of more (it did), and Joe drank, and I drank, and in less than half an hour I'll be witched if I had twenty-five cents left out of two dollars. Well, what could I do then? I ax any reasonable man what could I do? I couldn't go home without the flannin, and I couldn't buy it without the money. So I hooked a bolt of it (I did), that's a fact, and I'm not ashamed to acknowledge it, for nothing else could be done; and if I hadn't been nabbed my old woman should have had six red flannin petticoats instead of two she sent me after, and that's the whole story."

Dickson was committed, in default of bail, to answer for the larceny.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

A WOMAN'S ALMANAC.—Alphonze Kar alleges that epochs in a women's life are frequently marked by dress. Women will, for instance, often say that such a thing happened when they bought a particular article of costume, thus: "I recollect perfectly well when Mrs. Jones took her third husband; Charles gave me my ermine tippet at that time. Mrs. Williams was baptised and confirmed just one year ago last January, for I bought my blue velvet dress that month. Old Mrs. Pope died last Wednesday six months, for I got my camel's hair shawl on the day of the funeral.

The fickleness of fashion is proverbial. She is never content but in extremes. The little bonnets of the present day are pretty sure to be followed by the huge scoop shovels which used to hide the fair faces of the wearers fifteen or twenty years ago. "Poetry is prophecy," and an old satire, discoursing of this very subject, says—

To-day rightjauntily a hat she wears
That scarce affords a shelter to her ears;
To-morrow, haply searching long in vain,
You spy her features down a Leghorn lane!"

Tom Thumb made a free exhibition of himself in Westminster [London] County Court where he was summoned as a witness by a person named Hassett, who alleged that he had been engaged by Mr. Barnum as a valet to Tom Thumb, but was dismissed after three days service without proper notice. Tom Thumb was placed on an elevated seat facing the Judge. He gave his evidence in a connected manner, and the plaintiff having failed to prove that he was hired by Mr. Barnum, had a verdict against him with costs.

SLIGHT MISTAKES.—The Raleigh Christian Advocate apologizes for several errors which crept into that paper during the sickness and absence of the editor. The following is one: "Rev. J. M. Brent, in an able article on education, was made to violate grammar and decency by speaking of the people as 'them asses.' It is due to him that we say he wrote it 'the masses.' The letter m stepped back to see its next neighbor.

USEFUL ADVICE.—A transcendental preacher took for his text, "Feed my lambs." A plain farmer very quaintly remarked to him on coming out of the church, "A very good text, sir, but you should take care not to put hay so high in he rack that lambs can't reach it."

A Remedy for Dyspepsia

Boerhave's Holland Bitters is now the most simple, delightful, and effectual remedy for dyspepsia, before the public. Many of our most worthy citizens testify to its efficacy. To persons subject to nervous and sick-headache, it is a valuable medicine. When used according to directions, it cannot fail to give relief.—Pittsburg Journal.

CAUTION!—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

AN EXTENSION CALLED FOR.

THE FIRST DAY OF JULY has arrived, and ERVING, BURDICK & Co., have found it impossible to complete their Directory, and they ask of an indulgent public a few days farther extension of time.

We have been greatly delayed in issuing it by the unprecedented amount of press work required to be done in the Sentinel office for the last two months—all their Steam Presses having been greatly overtaxed with work requiring a large amount of night work to fill the orders of other customers, to whom a preference has always been given.

The Directory will contain nearly 50 per cent more names than any previous one, besides a large amount of valuable statistical and other matter, making it an invaluable book of reference for every business man in the city. ERVING, BURDICK & CO.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JULY 13.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

John Johnson, intoxicated, fined $5.

Manuel Elder, intoxicated, fined $5.

John Castile, sent to superintendents of poor.

WHIPPING HIS WIFE.—A fellow named Michael Doyle, who lives in the 8th Ward, while drunk, beat his wife, and maltreated her in such a manner, that she was obliged to have the police arrest him to protect herself, and when he was fined in the police court yesterday, and about to be sent to jail in default of the fine, his wife, who is a fine looking young woman, came forward, with tears in her eyes and paid it. As it was his first offence and he appeared very penitent, Justice Walworth put the fine $5, giving him a wholesome lecture gratuitously, when husband and wife went on their way rejoicing, and we hope that they will never have occasion to appear in the police court again.

James Hughes, assault and battery upon Daniel Kennedy, fined $20.

J. H. Redfield, violating bridge Ordinance, discharged.

CIRCUIT COURT—July 13.

HON. ARTHUR MCARTHUR PRESIDING.

State of Wisconsin vs. Jane Tompkins, indicted for larceny, verdict guilty. Sentenced to State Prison for one year.

State of Wisconsin vs. John Koenig and Paul Hammerlie, indicted for larceny. Trial proceeding.

A MAN KILLED ON THE R. R.—SAD EFFECTS OF RUM.—On Saturday night a man named Charles Webb was run over on the M. & M. Railroad, about two miles from the city, by the freight train. Webb was in a beastly state of intoxication when last seen alive, and it is supposed that he wandered out upon the railroad while in this state, and probably fell upon the track and was unable to get up, for the engineer did not see him until quite close, and then he was lying across the track. We learn that Webb was a man of very good character, but would occasionally get on a spree, and remain drunk while his money lasted. He was a tin-smith in the employment of Mr. H. W. Goodrich. He leaves a wife and one child, who, by the agency of rum, are thus deprived of their protector, and left entirely destitute.

BOY DROWNED.—On Saturday afternoon an English boy named Charles Sennett went to bathe in a pond on the north side of Spring street, nearly opposite the residence of Jas. H. Rogers, got beyond his depth and was drowned before assistance reached him. There were several other youngsters with him at the time, but none of them could swim, so that they were unable to help him, but ran as fast as they could for assistance. Officer Dodge was on the spot in a few minutes, who dived to the bottom of the filthy pond, and brought out the body, but life was entirely extinct. The boy was the only son of a poor widow, who went to Chicago a short time since, and soon intended to return. What a sad bereavement it will be to the poor mother, when this melancholy intelligence reaches her!

A GOOD COMPARISON.—THOS. FRANCIS MEAGHER made a laughable comparison in his lecture on Saturday night, to illustrate his subject, between LOUIS THE FOURTEENTH and ANDREW JACKSON. The former he described in all his regal pomp and extravagance, squandering the people's money with lords and noblemen to pull his silk stockings over the royal calves, and place the powdered wig upon his kingly head, with all the paraphernalia of royaldom, while, said Mr. Meagher, ANDREW JACKSON, the President of the UNITED STATES, at the head of the greatest nation on earth, had but one attendant, and that was an Irish boy named JIMMY O'NEIL, who used to brush the General's clothes and cut his tobacco, and would have smoked it for him too if he were let!

GOING TO NEW ORLEANS.—On Sunday evening Mr. Bilty, of the Tremont House, noticed a bushy-headed, and rather eccentric looking individual looking wistfully into the lake, near the foot of Huron street, and after remaining in this way for a few minutes, he walked deliberately into the water clothes and all. Mr. B, with the assistance of some others, succeeded in getting him out, and brought him to the station house. When interrogated as to what induced him to go into the lake, he replied—"I was going to New Orleans, but I got a leetle to the right." The poor fellow was evidently insane. We learn that his name is John Castile, and that he is a Spaniard. He was sent to the care of the Superintendent of Poor.

A NEW HOTEL.—The handsome building which Mr. Upman is erecting on Market Square, is designed, when finished, for a hotel, and will be completed and go into operation early in the Fall. It is about as substantial a structure as any in our city. The basement, which will be divided into four stores, is built with solid stone and iron, with iron front, and the walls are of unusual thickness. The building will be a very handsome one, fronting on Market Square 60 feet, by 50 feet deep, and will be 5 stories high. It is in an excellent situation both for stores and a hotel, and we think cannot fail to be a very profitable investment to the enterprising owner.

"THREE CHEERS FOR THE ALDERMEN OF THE SECOND WARD!!"—We noticed the above significant inscription on a huge placard erected on a broom stick, over a pool of stagnant water, on Cedar street, large enough to navigate a small steamboat on. Why the Aldermen of the Second Ward should be cheered for leaving filthy water in the street gutters, which will destroy the people's health, we were at a loss to know. Had it been three groans, instead of "cheers," we would not have been at all surprised, and we now move that the cheers be stricken out, and "groans" inserted, and that it also be applied to the Third Ward Aldermen. Who will second the motion?

STREET COMMISSIONERS' ORDERS, &C.—Lot 1, in block 81, 3d Ward, is declared a nuisance, and ordered filled.

Also, lots 1 and 3, block 39—lot 3, block 37—front of lots 6 and 8, 5th Avenue, and part of lots 10 and 12, block 82, and front of lot 1, block 83, all in the 9th ward.

Also lots 1 to 12, in blocks 4 and 5, and lands bounding said blocks on the south, extending to Walnut street, between 9th and 10th, and between 10th and 11th streets—in the 9th ward.

The 7th Ward Aldermen order plank sidewalks and stone gutters to be laid on both sides of Johnson street, between Main and East Water.

DROWNED.—On Sunday morning a young man named Frederick Sippel, was drowned in the river near Chestnut street bridge, while washing a horse. He drove the horse into the river, and remained on his back swimming him around, and in bringing him out from a deep place, the horse's hind feet slipped, and he fell back into the water, throwing the rider off, who was unable to swim, and was drowned before he could be got out. He was hostler at the Fond du Lac House, was German, and about 24 years of age.

RUNAWAY.—A horse, attached to a buggy, ran away on Wisconsin st., Sunday afternoon, and came "lickety bang" down the sidewalk, smashing the buggy to fragments, and throwing out a young man who was driving, named JOHN LADDES. He crossed Spring street bridge at a 2:40 rate, and up West Water street, where he was stopped. The young man was not seriously injured, and wonderful to say no one else was hurt, though the sidewalk was thronged at the time.

ACCIDENT TO THE CIRCUS.—We learned last night, from a gentleman who had just come from Racine, that the canvass of NIXON & KEMP'S Circus fell down in the middle of the performance, yesterday afternoon, during the thunder storm, covering up men, children and horses promiscuously, but fortunately, none were severely injured, though all were pretty well jammed up together, and some slightly bruised. Several ladies fainted and were taken senseless from under the canvass. They soon recovered, however.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the thunder storm of Sunday afternoon, the barn of Wm. E. Lamberton, near the County line Station, was struck by lightning, shivering the timbers and tearing off part of the covering. There was a horse standing in one of the stalls at the time, but fortunately it was not injured. Small damage sustained.

For the Daily Sentinel.

A CARD.

CHICAGO, July 10th, '57.

At a regular meeting of the National Guard Cadets, of Chicago, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the corps of Cadets of the "National Guard," most cordially unite in expressing their sense of the deep obligation that the extreme kindness and attention evinced by their reception at Milwaukee, on the occasion of the Encampment of the 4th inst., has placed them under, to the citizen soldiers and civilians of that city.

Resolved, That while we return our sincere thanks for the kindness we never can adequately repay, we will ever do our part, however small, to continue to promote the good feeling, and reciprocate the cordiality and esteem between the two cities—so noble an example of which was exhibited on the occasion of our visit, by all with whom we were brought in contact.

Resolved, That our thanks are especially due to the officers and members of the Milwaukee Light Guard, whose unwearied efforts to make the occasion of our visit one of unalloyed pleasure, have deeply impressed upon our minds the conviction of the genuine, whole-souled hospitality they so liberally dispensed, of which we shall ever cherish the enduring remembrance as the most pleasurable reminiscence of our military life—an event to which we shall ever recur with emotions of the sincerest pleasure, and we shall ever cherish the moment when, as the recipients of their generous kindness, we were brought into connection with a corps so eminently deserving of unqualified praise, as true soldiers in every signification of the term, as our hosts of Milwaukee.

Resolved, That the above be printed in the daily papers of this city and Milwaukee, and a copy transmitted to the Batallion of Milwaukee Light Guards.

J. R. SCOTT, President.

JOHN W. CARROLL, Secretary pro. tem.

SALE OF LOTS IN VLIET'S ADDITION.—The property which Mr. Vliet has laid off into building lots, is in a part of the city which appears of late to have attracted more attention than any other, and has been built up with a corresponding rapidity. The beautiful grove where Mr. Vliet has his own residence, is perhaps one of the attractions which draws strangers to this locality, with the extended view which it commands, and uninterrupted health which characterises it, both tend to fix the impression created by the first appearance.

Be this, however, as it may, certain it is, that no portion of the city is being built up more rapidly, and in none is the value of property more steadily increasing.

We call the attention of our readers to the public sale of the property, which is to take place to-morrow at the City Auction Room, under the auspices of Ogden & Wall.

A DESIRABLE LOCATION.—Mr. J. S. FILLMORE offers an excellent house and lot on Milwaukee street, near Oneida, for sale cheap. This is a most desirable location, and the house is a good one. See advertisement in another column, where other matters of interest will also be found.

CORRECTION.—In our report of the proceedings of the Common Council in yesterday's Sentinel, the type made us say that "an ordinance was passed authorizing the issue of city bonds to the amount of $1,000 for construction of bridges." It should have read $10,000.

REAL ESTATE SALES YESTERDAY.—Mr. J. S. FILLMORE, Land and Collecting Agent, No. 246 East Water Streets, reports the following registered sales of real estate:

At a regular meeting of Old Rough and Ready Engine Co. No. 4, held at their engine house July 6th, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the officers and members of this Company tender a vote of thanks to John Miller; also to Messrs. Martin & Rugee, for furnishing us with the cracked-up teams of the city of Milwaukee, which they furnished us for drawing our engine on the 4th of July last, and we recommend Mr. John Miller to the public for all kinds of heavy drawing, as he has the teams to do it with.

Resolved, That the above resolution be published in the city papers.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.
MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.
He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
ROXBURY, Mass.
DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.
In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother,
NURSING SORE MOUTH,
is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.
In the more advanced stages of CANKER
it extends to the stomach, causing DYSPEPSIA,
which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and KIDNEYS,
creating a sinking, gone-feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.
Your stomach is
RAW AND INFLAMED,
your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to CURE;
Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the PILES.
How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the MEDICAL DISCOVERY
you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

The week past has been one of fine growing weather for the crops, and our accounts from the interior are almost universally favorable. We think that the harvest this year, in our State, must be one of the very best, as it will of course be the largest in returns, of any ever seen in Wisconsin.

In general trade, business has been fair, and the money market slightly improved.

In the produce market, the week has been a dull one. Prices, for wheat especially, have been kept up to a point which left no margin for the dealers, and as the buyers have not succeeded in getting them down, they doubtless welcome the falling off of receipts which precedes the harvest. The aggregate shipments from this port of flour and wheat, to the coming in of the first new wheat, will be just about equal to 2,000,000 bushels of wheat.

We annex our usual Price Current, and money article:

WOOL.—Some 60,000 lbs has come in by railroads during the week, but a considerable portion is purchased in the interior, and baled for shipment. The prices paid by our dealers range about as follows, extra clips, well put up, securing better figures, in a few cases, by 2 or 3 cents:

Quarter blood	—23a25c.
Half "	—26a27c.
Three Fourth "	—28a31c.
Full "	—31a35c.
Common "	—18a20c.

☞ The New York wool market is thus spoken of in the Tribune of Thursday:

The new clip begins to arrive more freely; but up to this the supply has been quite scanty, very little having been received at all, as yet, from the West, and this, coming on a market bare of stock, was sought for on arrival at very full rates, but no higher, comparatively, than paid for in the interior. Not a great deal has transpired in this market, as yet, owing the want of adequate supplies, as well as from the fact that most, if not all, of the manufacturing agents and wool dealers have been in the wool-growing districts, where, contrary to expectations, the majority of them have purchased extensively, and two-thirds of the clip is now computed to have changed hands at an advance fully of 3a5c ℔ lb above even the high rates of last season; this is owing chiefly to the appearance of some large dealers in market for necessary supplies, and other producers, taking it for granted that those large operators were well posted up, and knew what they were about, followed suit, and the result is seen in the above statement. Many of the prudent dealers and producers have been deterred from purchasing to that extent which they otherwise would, were it not for the high prices prevalent; prices, indeed, which the goods market does not seem to warrant at present. The clip will prove about the same as that of last year, but the growth is larger, and in heaviness it will net 10 ℔ cent fully more than last season, it being less free from burry and greasy substances, on account of the unfavorable shearing weather. At the close there was more inquiry for fine (cassimere) wools, and prices rule firmly; sales of some 100,000 lbs in lots, for the week, have been effected at 45a47½c for superfine, and 50a52½c for extra fleeces. Pulled wools have been more active, sales of 30,000 lbs of old superfine and extra country at 42a45c for the former, and 50a53c for the latter. We quote:

American Saxony fleece. ℔ lb	45@60
American full blooded Merino	45@51
American ½ and ¾ Merino	40@47
American native and ¼ Merino	37@43
Extra pulled	46@52
Superfine pulled	37@45

WHISKEY—32a33.

WOOD—Good supply. Ready sale at $3,00a4,00 ℔ cord. Sawed and split, delivered from yard, at $4,75 a5,25.

HAY—good supply. We quote common marsh hay at $15a18, and timothy at 20a$21.

Money Market.

BANKING AND EXCHANGE OFFICE OF BRIDGE BROTHERS, 228 EAST WATER ST., MIL. July 13, '57.

Since our last, the demand for money has not fallen off, while the supply has hardly kept up. We venture the opinion that there will be a close market for some time yet. We shall gladly chronicle an improvement, when it comes.

At the East, money brings high prices, and securities sell at the lowest rates.

Land Warrants are scarce, with an active call at slightly advanced figures.

We quote, selling at an advance of 2 cents per acre over New York rates:

40 acre warrants	$1,17
80 " "	1,00
120 " "	97
160 " "	93

We guarantee all warrants we sell, in every respect, and shall pay particular attention to orders from the country.

Exchange is in good supply, but we have no change to note in price; buying at ¾a1 per ct.; selling for Milwaukee city, New York and New England notes, and coin ¾ per cent, currency 1½ per cent.

We append an abstract of our Circular, copies of which may be had at our office.

Uncurrent money is unchanged. We are buying

Indiana Free Banks, (specie paying) 2 to 5 per cent discount.

Solvent—Southern and Pennsylvania Banks, 2 to 5 per cent discount.

Erie City Bank 50 per cent discount.

Bank of Newcastle 50 per cent discount.

Warren County Bank 5 per cent discount.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, July 11th.

There is a moderate demand for flour to ship to Montreal by Canadians who have bought without reference to any shipping margin, in preference to buying drafts or transmitting money home. There is no change in rates of freight, and the only charter noted to-day is the schooner Echo at 6½c for wheat to Oswego.

Wheat was in demand this forenoon; and 5 cargoes spring were made up at 1,25 on board, and some small lots a few car loads—at $1,24 in store. But after New York news of a slight decline in wheat, cargoes would not bring $1,25 on board.

OGDEN & WALL,
CITY LAND OFFICE.

City Land Office,
A GREAT chance to get a home and a homestead for a small amount of money. We have left with us a very beautiful cottage, neatly finished with all the conveniences necessary, containing some six or seven rooms—also a beautiful lot ornamented with trees and shrubbery, in a pleasant location, in First Ward. The said property is 40 feet—lot 4, block 180, 1st ward. The said house and lot will be sold at a great bargain, and if not sold by the 20th July, it will be sold at the City Auction Room to the highest bidder for cash.
j13 OGDEN & WALL.

CITY LAND OFFICE.
WE REMIND our citizens again of the great sale of Lots in Vliet's addition, Ninth Ward.—Every person who has lived in Milwaukee three months knows Vliet's Grove. The Addition which we are going to sell is part of that tract of land. For beauty its equal is not to be found in that whole region of country.
The sale of the said lots takes place at the City Auction Rooms on Wednesday, July 15th, 1857, at 10 o'clock.—Terms will be easy. We have maps ready and invite all who wish to obtain a map to call at our office and get one. This sale we consider one that will be of interest to all who have money to invest. There is no part of our city so rapidly filling up.
jy10 OGDEN & WALL.

Grand Real Estate Sale.
ON THE 29th of July inst., we propose selling at public auction a number of lots selected from every portion of the city. We have already some good business property which will be engaged in the list, as well as some choice spots for residences.
Persons desirous of offering property at this sale are invited to call at our office, give us a description of their lots, and fix the limit at which they will sell; if we get no bid over such limit the property will be withdrawn.
We are anxious to have the catalogue prepared at an early day, and request our friends to hand in their lists as soon as convenient.
jy9 OGDEN & WALL.

Hotel to Rent.
THE HAWKINS HOUSE, in the Fifth Ward, close by Walker's Point Bridge, is offered for rent.
This house is well located for a hotel—is favorably known, and has a good run of customers—it is fitted throughout with gas, has a good billiard and bar room, and is close to the depot of the Lake Shore road.
For terms, apply to Wm. A. Hawkins on the premises, or to OGDEN & WALL.

SALE OF LOTS
IN VLIET'S ADDITION TO NINTH WARD.
ON the 15th day of July next we will offer for sale at the City Land Office, on Michigan street, upwards of a hundred lots in the neighborhood of Mr. Vliet's residence. The constant demand on Mr. Vliet for small portions of his tract has finally induced him to lay out a part of it in lots—so that those desiring to purchase may have an opportunity of selecting such as they choose, and in order to afford an equal chance to everybody, we will sell none at private sale, but will put them at public auction. To those who know the spot, it will be sufficient to say that the lots are for sale. To those who do not, and are seeking for lots on which either to build, or to speculate, we say look for yourselves, and judge whether any of the places now offering in and about the city, can compare with this june26 OGDEN & WALL.

Another detachment of 100 men were immediately sent to the scene of conflict, and requisition was made for a detachment of military.

This riot, it is said, was premeditated, but was not to take place till night, when it was intended to commence with an attack on 17th Ward Station House.

"FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS."
WEST'S
PATENT GALVANIC CEMENT FOR ROOFING!
IT MAKES a better Roof than Tin, at less than half the cost. Those who know it best speak of it in the following terms.
We were present at the disastrous fire in Salina, last fall, and took particular notice of the effect of the fire on "West's Galvanic Cement" Roofs. The composition was fire proof. Burning boards and cinders fell on the roofs, and did no harm. The inside of the buildings were burned out, and the roof boards almost entirely consumed, before any fire would break through the roofs—It will resist fire longer than tin, and there is no other kind of roofs that are so entirely proof against water.
Syracuse, March, 1857.
Alexander Duff, A. Crippen,
G. A. Johonnot, Elmer P. Morse,
P. Ford, James Johonnot.
The superior claims which this Elastic Composition,
Fire and Water Proof Roofing,
Has over the various ordinary Cements and Compositions which have been offered to the public, consists in the FACT that it has proved for over fifteen years worthy the confidence of those who have given it a trial, and to this FACT we attribute the general favor and universal patronage it is obtaining in this City and State.
To all who are erecting new buildings, that would if possible at a reasonable price, avoid the perplexity and annoyance of defective and leaky roofs, and secure such as will be a perfect protection from the elements, we submit the following facts and conclusions:
To the Proprietors of West's Patent Galvanic Roofing:
GENTLEMEN:—We are some of the numerous property holders of this city, who have availed ourselves of the advantages which your Elastic Composition Roofing Material affords, and we most cheerfully and unhesitatingly say, that our experience and observations thus far, fully fully sustain and corroborate the proof you have heretofore presented to the public, through the Milwaukee press, of the superior claims of your roofing material:
J. B. Cross, Daniel Newhall, Alanson Sweet, E. B. Wolcott, E. Button, C. Alexander, M. A. Krug, B. Heller, Ernst Herz r, F. A. Hallman, builder, Tibbetts, Starkweather & Co., J. B. Turcy, Wm. P. Young, John Rosebeck, B. & S. Stasts, Th. Wetstein, Babcock, Bros., builders, W. H. Metcalf, G. Pfister & Co., Haven Powers, G. A. Starkweather, J. B. Weld, Chapin, Gregory & Amour, Baker & Isham, Charles K. Austin, J. H. Sikman, Martin Curtis, Elisha Starr, P. Lowe, W. P. Merrill, H. Rookle, builder, Ch. Preusser, F. Roddis & Co., Geo. F. Austin, H. A. Nichols, Martin & Rugee, builders, H. H. Camp.
Within the past year, I have paid THREE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-THREE DOLLARS for repairing leaky and defective roofs. The composition used for such improvements is known as West's Galvanic Cement for roofing. I am so well satisfied of the value received for the expenditure, and of the superiority of this article for roofing purposes, over any other article now in use, that I have engaged to have it applied to the building which I am having erected on the corner of East Water and Michigan streets. ALEXANDER MITCHELL.
During the winter of 1856 and 1857, I had West's Galvanic Cement Roofing applied to the Excelsior Block, erected on the corner where the United States Hotel was burned. This roofing, although yet in an unfinished condition, having only about one-half the composition of a complete roof, and that in the most unfavorable season, is in all respects answering the purpose of a complete roof. These facts, together with many others within my knowledge, are such that I fully concur in the opinion expressed by men who have had years of experience with this roofing material, that it is the most perfect and reliable article for covering buildings, that has been offered to the public. J. B. CROSS,
Mayor of the City of Milwaukee.
I have had the composition above referred to applied to the Newhall House, during the past winter, and my experience, knowledge and opinion correspond with and fully corroborate the above facts and conclusions.
DANIEL NEWHALL.
From our knowledge of the composition for covering buildings, known as West's Galvanic Cement for roofing, which has been very extensively used in this city the past year with perfect satisfaction to those who have adopted it, we most cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other article of the kind now in use, and worthy of the fullest confidence of the public.

Office, No. 249 Main Street, 1 door North of Wisconsin.
THE undersigned are now putting on this Celebrated Roofing material, in this city and vicinity, and are prepared to contract with those who may wish a cheap and durable roof; one that has not only been THOROUGHLY TESTED, but has rendered perfect satisfaction wherever it has been tried, and so confident are we of its superiority over all other roofs, we do, or fear or hesitate to warrant it for years. It is perfectly elastic, flexible, fire and water proof. It will not crack, melt, or rot—it contracts and expands with the change of the atmosphere—in fact this Roofing is Practically Imperishable.
It is applied by laying saturated felt paper, a body of itself, (separate and independent) on the roofing boards (or as it is commonly called sheathing) over the paper the canvass; on this the cement is applied, which becomes thoroughly saturated, thereby being no possibility of the material cracking by the shrinkage of the timber underneath. It can be applied to old tin, iron, zinc, tin and gravel roofs, making no difference how steep or flat they may be.
We invite those who are interested in getting a roof that will stand the test of cold or hot weather without being the least affected, to call on us and satisfy themselves by examining our specimens and roofs that have been put on in this city. We ask the attention of Architects, Builders and all others, to the nature of this roof, and court thorough investigation, feeling assured that we are presenting to the public an article worthy of attention.
We have put roofs on for the following gentlemen in this city who have given us the liberty of referring to them in regard to the good qualities of our Cement, viz:
Messrs. W. A. Conway & Co., Steam Planing Mill, Third Street, near Clybourn.
Messrs. Crampton & Oakley, " " Fowler street, between 4th and 5th.
Messrs. W. S. Babcock & Bro's, Master Builder, 2d st., between Sycamore and Clybourne.
Mr. F. A. Hallman, Master Builder, residence 5th st., between Spring and Wells.
Mr. John Marquis, Master Builder, corner Jefferson and Martin sts.
Mr. George Southwell, residence on Jefferson st., between Division and Knapp.
Mr. John P. Harris, contractor and builder.
And hundreds of others who have used this roofing in Chicago and Cincinnati, all of whom have unbounded confidence in its superiority, and many of whom have given us their written testimonials, and the liberty to refer to them if required.
We also refer to the following gentlemen as to our responsibility in performing any contract we may enter into with parties who may engage their roofing, viz:
E. D. Holton, Esq., President of Farmers' and Millers' Bank.
Messrs. Littell & Baker, Wholesale Grocers, No. 169 East Water St.
Messrs. Paxton & Williams, " " 15 Spring St.
John F. Martin, Esq., Banker, Madison, Wisconsin.
D. B. Shipley, " "
For further reference, &c., see pamphlet issued by us.
We will furnish this Cement to those wishing it residing out of the city, with printed directions for applying it, which is simple and easily put on, as it is used cold.
Any information in regard to the above roofing will be cheerfully given by us, and orders sent to the firm by those who are at a distance, through the Post Office, Box 940, will be promptly attended to. Application may be made to us for the purchase of rights in Counties or towns in this State on which to use the above roofing.

As no odor proceeds from the preparation, the glove can be worn immediately after it is cleaned. With a piece of flannel, apply a small portion of the preparation very lightly, and the dirt will immediately disappear. It is the article used by the Kid Glove Manufacturers of France to impart that purity of finish and softness for which their gloves are so justly celebrated. It cleans kid slippers and white and colored kid gloves elegantly. It is also an excellent article for the toilet, and for beautifying the complexion removing tan, pimples, &c., far exceeds in excellence any of the thousand and one preparations usually sold for that purpose. One trial, at the trifling expense of 25 cents, will convince any one that the article is all that it is claimed to be. Try a bottle of it for 25 cents, and you will never wish to be without it.—It can be obtained of all Druggists and Dealers in Fancy Goods in Milwaukee, and at wholesale of the sole proprietors CLARK & Co., 335 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. E. & J. HOLMES' IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRTS. WE take pleasure in again introducing our improved Seamless Skirt, as being the most acceptable article in market; we are aware that many new styles called improvements are before the public, such as India Rubber, Gutta Percha, Rattan, &c., all of which we have if called for—but cannot recommend them, as we have experimented with and tested them all—(most of them two years since) submitting them to the judgment of competent ladies to decide upon their merits, and have found them from actual use, to be in all important respects, inferior to our properly prepared Whalebone which has been in use the past years, and for which has been expressed from all parts of the country entire satisfaction; and we have the more positive evidence from our own large retail trade, amounting to many dozens per day. Therefore we confidently recommend our Skirts to be the least objectionable of anything in use—possessing many advantages found in no other Skirt, the most important of which is our series of elastic cords at the bottom, made from the only material that can be used, that will recover its place when pressed out of shape, will not roll nor curl, is not affected by heat or cold and can be washed without injury. These cords at the bottom, instead of bones, which are exceedingly awkward and inconvenient, with our own prepared bones above and a fabric manufactured by ourselves expressly for our goods, in our estimation and the estimation of thousands who have used them, pronounce a Skirt, and the only skirt equally adapted to the parlor, the street, and the crowd, giving a proper, graceful and elegant form to a Ladies' dress; light, pliable, easily adjusted and in every respect a complete article. The public are cautioned against all imitations or other goods called Seamless Skirts. Every genuine article is stamped E. & J. Holmes' Improved Seamless Whalebone Skirt, and are for sale at 90 Market street, Philadelphia, and in the principal Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston. E. & J. HOLMES & CO. MEDICAL.

R. R. R.

THREE GREAT LIGHTS. Mankind have long been engulphed in darkness, as regards the true means of securing health—ridding the human body from disease, and preserving life. The sick, under the fallacious treatment of the regular faculty, are subject to a continued practice of probabilities and uncertainties. There is nothing certain or fixed in the treatment of the sick either in the old or new school of medicine. Dr. Radway has succeeded in producing three remedies—known to the world as Radway's Ready Relief, Renovating Resolvent and Regulator. These remedies are not only established facts, inasmuch as they have never yet failed in their special or combined efficacy in producing fruitful and beneficial results—but, they are facts establishing a science—as they have in all cases, "when tried," succeeded in restoring to health—and ridding the body from disease after all other medical treatment had failed—and the most skillful physicians had given up the sick as beyond the power of human means to cure—and pronounced the dreadful mandate—incurable. Radway's Remedies are therefore fixed facts in the archives of medical science—they have been "often tried"—"never denied"—and are ready "to be tried again."

FIRST GREAT LIGHT. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. As a Special Remedy to be used in all cases where the human body is seized with the torturing pangs or paroxysms of pain—no matter what the cause of the pain may be, or where it may be located—an application of the Ready Relief, either internally as a drink, or externally as an alleviator, will, in a few minutes, restore the afflicted body to ease and comfort. In all cases of Bowel Disorders, Dysentery, Cholera, Bloody Flux, Sick Headache, and other Nervous Affections, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Sprains, Strains, Tooth Ache, Burns, Scalds, Wounds, Shot Wounds, Bruises, Cuts Poisoning, either by the bites or stings of Reptiles, Insects or Vegetable or Mineral Poisoning by accident—in all cases and under all circumstances where the human system is tortured by Pain, Radway's Ready Relief can be relied upon as a quick, safe and certain Remedy. THIRD GREAT LIGHT. RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT. Cures Humors' Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Ulcers, Nodes, Tumors, Fever Sores, Skin Eruptions Blotches, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Gout, Dropsy Syphilis, Consumption, Appoplexy, &c., and all constitutional and chronic diseases, either inherited by hereditary transmission or inoculated by exposure or otherwise. There is no remedy in the world that will work such miraculous cures in old diseases as Radway's Resolvent. It changes the whole human body—reproduces new and healthy blood. ☞ Bleeding from the lungs—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will, in a few minutes, check Hemorrhage from the lungs or throat. In cases where the patient coughs up clots of blood or pus streaked with blood, Radway's Resolvent will soon remove the difficulty. ☞ Sarah Hammond, of 158 East Thirty-second St., had a bad cough for two years, she coughed up sometimes half a pint of blood during the night. She was cured in seven days by the Relief and Resolvent. ☞ A sore leg of 21 years, cured in three weeks, by Radway's Relief. Mr. T. H. Kilge, a merchant of high standing in Dalonega, Ga., says: "That a gentleman, who for 21 years had been afflicted with a sore leg, that resisted every kind of treatment, was effectually cured in three weeks by Radway's Ready Relief, Resolvent and Regulators."

THE THREE GREAT LIGHTS. RADWAY'S RELIEF—REGULATOR—RESOLVENT. In all constitutional diseases, and where the constitution is broken down, or the body in a rapid state of decay, or the system inoculated with the virus of disease, either by the violation of the laws of health, intemperance, excess and indulgence of the passions, or by hereditary transmission, as in cases of Scrofula, Consumption, Rheumatism, Gout, Fits and other heir looms, which a long line of ancestry has so bountifully and richly bestowed on posterity, as a memento of the past, at the cost of the suffering inheritors. These Remedies in their trinitary capacity possess a curative power that no disease can withstand; their combined effect will eradicate from the living body every particle of diseased matter, renovate the whole system with health; heal the unsound, decaying lungs, or other organs; cleanse and purify the unclean from all impurities. To the disabled wayfarer, who is crippled with infirmities, we invite you "to try" these remedies. We will vouch for their efficacy. With many hundreds of others who have witnessed and felt the effect of the "Three Great Lights," and as they rule and govern those bodies which they are destined by the Almighty Power, so these three Remedies stand as Rulers, Conquerors and Grand Masters of all diseases. BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND FEVER AND AGUE. And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in many instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system. NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find in this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties. CAUTION! The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations. ☞ Sold at $1.00 per Bottle, or six Bottles for $5.00, by the SOLE PROPRIETORS, BENJAMIN PAGE, JR., & CO., MANUFACTURING PHARMACEUTISTS AND CHEMISTS, PITTSBURGH, PA. ☞ BARCLAY BROTHERS, Chicago, General Agents.
